We welcome you to a spectacular divine experience. The event is a great opportunity for your family and friends to come and reconnect with the almighty.

- Be yourself and enjoy an blissful evening
- Enjoy the Supreme Lord celebrated via music and dance
- Hear and Learn our sweet everlasting relationship with Him
- Re-establish that lost relationship between you and the Enchanting Lord
- Done through authorized principles prescribed in our timeless Vedic culture.

Please Register now and do not wait till the last minute

In the incarnation of Sri Krishna, Lord revealed the doctrine of divine love, as manifested by the cowherd maids (gopikas). Man is like an earthen pot filled with nectar, body made of clay, but with spirit eternal inside. Lord Krishna (Karshathi-ithi Krishna) constantly attracts us by His words, His sport, His music, and with all His actions. Such was the great avathara, that great souls, mystics and poets - have used effusive adjectives to describe His Leelas for centuries and yet failed to fully bring out His Transcendental Glories.

We humbly request you all, to come and participate in Sri Krishna Janmashtami Celebrations
on Saturday, August 20th, 2011 from 4:00 p.m.

We will be having the complete spectrum of Indian community witness this Event. From tiny tots dressed as Gopalas and Gopikas to brimming musical talent. All competing to bring out the beauty and supremacy of the loving Lord. We encourage you to forget the world and immerse yourself in devotion for one day.

Let the seed of the Lord's name, ripen in your heart with love.
